

10 REASONS why you should work at this year's Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences

1. Represent two of Canada's most prestigious university campuses
2. Gain experience working at a premiere academic event
3. Discover cutting-edge humanities and social sciences research
4. Network and meet new people
5. Attend exciting talks by high-profile thinkers
6. Bolster your résumé
7. Attend Congress 2012 Expo – North America's largest interdisciplinary book fair and tradeshow
8. Enjoy all the special cultural events that will be taking place in the Kitchener-Waterloo region during Congress
9. Learn how you can showcase your own research
10. Find out about the benefits of becoming a member of one of our 75+ scholarly associations

The Canadian Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences (CFHSS) is recruiting short-term contract workers for the 2012 Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences at Wilfrid Laurier University and the University of Waterloo (May 26 to June 2).

Congress 2012 will welcome more than 7000 scholars over eight days at the largest interdisciplinary conference in North America. Congress will bring Canada's most innovative researchers and outstanding global visionaries to Kitchener-Waterloo. Eminent scholars and creative thinkers will share leading research in the arts, social sciences and humanities through over 6000 presentations. Don't miss your chance to be part of this amazing experience – apply today!